- We have plenty of volunteers
- Mrs. Hayes to do an all-call; no children will be allowed to walk home
- We'll keep promoting

Cocoa and Cram

- December 18 and 19
- Parents arrive at 7:50; serve beginning at 8:20
- Dena will get cups, marshmallows, cocoa (we have some but need more) and cookies
- 180 kids

Move To Stand

This interactive training program challenges students to examine their attitudes toward bullying. This one-day youth summit creates empathy and helps young leaders understand how bullying impacts school climate and communities.

- Mrs. Hayes presented us an opportunity to sponsor this in February
- The program helps break down barriers and restores relationships
- 100 children will participate, but all children will benefit
- Cost is $1000 plus $73.43 lunch / travel for the speaker
- Kim moved to vote; Deb seconded; motion passed

Other

- Holiday Bazaar: we'll recap in January on ways to improve
- Holiday breakfast: we'll ask parents to bring breakfast casseroles for teacher/staff breakfast
- Website: All WCS websites are being updated; PTO portion will come down; we'll research easy options for a presence online
- Transitioning to HS: January 10 FHS counselors to speak; we'll help promote
